14. In view of this recommendation it does not seem necessary to send a reply to the Comptroller that Mr A. N. Raghava Char cannot be allowed to draw pay at Rs 250 per mensem from 11 Feb 1916 to 12 May 1916.

15. To entitle Mr Raghava Char to draw pay at Rs 250 from 13 May 1916, he must have also passed an examination in Kannada but no examination in this language was held between 11. 2. 1914, the date of Mr Raghava Char's appointment as a Pro. Asst Commr and 12 May 1916. He cannot be made to suffer for not passing an examination which was not conducted. An examination will shortly be held and if Mr Raghava Char should pass in it, he may be allowed to ~~be~~ draw pay at Rs 250 from 13 May 1916; otherwise from the date on which he may pass it. Sir,

With reference to your letter No.G.13988/G.M.134-15-120 dated the 6th April 1916 informing that ------ Mr. A. N. Raghavachar cannot be exempted from passing any of the prescribed Local Service Examinations, I have the honour to state that it was not my intention to have -- Mr. Raghavachar exempted from passing any of the prescribed Local Service Examinations. But as Government have in their order No.G.9839/G.M.66-13-92 dated the 1st June 1914, asked Mr. Raghavachar to pay special attention to Finance Examinations first, he should be given Rs.250/- as soon as he passes those Examinations. He will pass the other Local Service Examinations within any reasonable time which the Government may fix. Otherwise, he -- would be at a disadvantage for having been posted to the Accounts Department and it would not be easy to draw any probationer to this Department if that would place him at a disadvantage by requiring him to pass two sets of Examinations instead of one within the fixed period.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
